

Riddle # 1

I opened in April,
Don't remember the year.
Part of me makes sure,
The city doesn't fear.

Water will never top me,
Overkill, some may say.
One big hill you climb,
Will take your breath away.

Now that you've found me,
You'll need another clue.
Pay attention to my details,
To find out what to do.

Benches are for butts,
And cans are for trash.
Finding Waldo will ensure,
You are one step closer to the cash (medallion).
