

Riddle # 6

Almost finished,

I hope you've had fun!

Now just like ol' Larry...

Git er' done!!

Where's course number six?

Most probably have guessed.

But don't be so sure,

You could fail the test.

The highway department,

Probably doesn't know.

That some of their stuff,

Tells you which way to go.

Water, water, everywhere,

But where do you go to swim?

The Ocho might say,

If your disc goes astray,

Your chances for Par are slim.

So now me thinks,

You're headed the right way.

Bring your "A" game,

If you're gonna play.

Vern once owned me,

And now he does not.

In a dead space I sit,
Very hard to spot.

There was a plan involving me,
A frame was even made.
Octodecaphobia is an odd word,
Time for this riddle to fade...
